

INTRODUCTION TO JUNGIAN SANDPLAY THERAPY

Jungian Sandplay (“Sandplay”) a form of hands-on therapy used with both children and adults. Sandplay therapy helps clients visually express – rather than verbalize – their thoughts, feelings, and emotions.

In this seminar, participants will learn the following:

- Origin and development of Sandplay therapy;
- Introduction to the Kalfian Theory;
- Introducing Sandplay therapy to clients;
- Importance of symbols; and
- The language of the unconscious.

Sat, Oct 31, 2015

9am to 12pm

TCA College

Fee: $30/person

Registration closes Mon, Oct 26

About Your Seminar Leader

Jacintha Lai-Yong is the founder of Sandplay Therapy Singapore, specializing in Jungian Sandplay therapy. She began her study of Sandplay therapy with many teaching faculty members from the US, South Africa, and Switzerland.

Jacintha serves as a senior consultant to the Tampines Family Service Centre and Relationship Enhancement Institute Pte Ltd in Singapore.