The ICNT series aims to give a well-informed exposition of the meaning of the text and relevant reflections in everyday language for today's Indian context. The intended audience is the theological seminary or bible college, both students and faculty. However, the commentaries are also suitable for pastors and lay people with an interest in theology. The commentaries are culturally-rooted and the various applications relating to culture, society and religious life will help those involved in cross-cultural evangelism and mission work. There is no direct equivalent of the ICNT and hence this will be the first Indian commentary series serving India, and hopefully the entire subcontinent—India, Nepal, Bangladesh and Sri Lanka.

Babu Immanuel Venkataraman, a Langham scholar, is Associate Professor of New Testament at the Theological Centre for Asia College, Singapore. He is a graduate of Leonard Theological College, Jabalpur, MP (BD), United Theological College, Bangalore (MTh), and King's College London, University of London (Ph.D.). Formerly he taught at South India Biblical Seminary (SIBS), Bangarapet and South Asia Institute of Advanced Christian Studies (SAIACS), Bengaluru, as the Professor of New Testament and as the Academic Dean. He also served with The Association for Theological Education by Extension (TAFTEE), Bengaluru, as a senior faculty. He has authored a monograph, contributed a commentary on Acts for the South Asia Bible Commentary, and many articles published in Indian and international journals. He has also contributed short notes on Justice in the Gospel of Luke for The Justice Bible (Colorado Springs, Colo.: Biblica, 2015).
