Weekly Courses

CHURCH HISTORY

REV LILY LIM
EVERY MON, 9AM-12PM

This course examines the dynamic period in the life of the Church from the early beginnings in Jerusalem to the end of the 20th Century. It introduces the key personalities and the major events that shaped the Church and establishes these developments, people, and events as the spiritual heritage of all Christians.

INNER HEALING AND WHOLENESS

REV DR JOHNATHAN LEE
EVERY MON, 2-5PM

This course introduces the ministry of Inner Healing and Wholeness. It will help students to understand the relevance and healthy boundaries of this ministry for believers through lectures, readings and discussion on the biblical, theological, historical development and current practices of this ministry. This is not a skill course although some basic skills will be discussed.

HERMENEUTICS NO AUDIT

REV DR JOSEPH TAN
EVERY MON, 7-10PM

This course is an introduction to the interpretation of the Bible, with a view to providing a historical perspective and practical helps with which to study, interpret and apply Scripture.

CHURCH EDUCATIONAL MINISTRIES

REV DR LAM EE LIN
EVERY MON, 7-10PM

The church is as strong as the people in the congregation. Besides giving attention to historical and philosophical foundations of Christian education, this course focuses on curriculum considerations across the whole church. Discussion includes what curriculum is appropriate for various groups in the church to foster faith development.

THEOLOGY III/ SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY III

DR ROBERT SEARS

EVERY TUE, 9AM-12PM

PRE-REQUISITE FOR NON-GRADUATE STUDENTS: CHRISTIAN DOCTRINE

This course will introduce students to pneumatology (the Holy Spirit), ecclesiology (the Church), and eschatology (the end times) – exploring biblical, classical, contemporary, and liturgical expressions of these areas of theology, paying special attention to the various understandings and traditions which have divided the church. Deliberate connections will be made between these three doctrines and the life-giving practices of the Church.

JEREMIAHNEW

REV DR TAN HOCK SENG

EVERY TUE, 2-5PM

PRE-REQUISITE: OLD TESTAMENT SURVEY/FOUNDATIONS

The book of Jeremiah comprises stories about the prophet Jeremiah and his exchanges with Yahweh, and messages given to him by Yahweh. Jeremiah brings God's indictment against the Israelites for repeated and egregious covenant violations with a call to repentance lest they incur the wrath and judgement of God. More than that, the prophet includes a message of hope for future restoration of the people of God through a new covenant that will also bless the other nations. Students will learn about the content of the book, its dominant theological themes, and the application of its key-messages for the Church.

GREEK IIINO AUDIT

REV DR BABU IMMANUEL

EVERY TUE, 7-10PM

PRE-REQUISITE: GREEK II

Greek III is the third of a three-part introduction to the essential elements of koiné Greek New Testament through familiarization with understanding and application of basic grammar and vocabulary utilized in actual verses or passages.

Weekly Courses

FACETS OF SPIRITUAL LEADERSHIP

NEW

REV DR PHILIP HUAN
EVERY TUE, 7-10PM

Leadership is a gift that is received and grown. It is something God imparts into a believer before even the believer knows it. With increasing awareness, the believer hones and sharpens it in partnership with God. This course seeks to introduce a definition of leadership, educate on frameworks for the various facets, and provide handles in application and growth in both skill and character. The course will cover the call and purpose of a leader, God's empowerment for leadership, vision casting, building united teams and other leadership facets.

CULTURAL ANTHROPOLOGY

REV LILY LIM
EVERY WED, 7-10PM

This course aims at providing anthropological insights, skills, and practical application for effective witness and ministry in one's own culture, in a foreign culture, or in a multi-cultural setting. Our approach integrates Biblical theology, anthropological insights, and communication dynamics.

PASTORAL MINISTRIES/PASTORAL THEOLOGY AND LEADERSHIP

NO AUDIT

REV DR JOHNATHAN LEE
EVERY THU, 7-10PM

This course will examine the life and work of the pastor. It will examine the biblical and theological foundations of ministry as well as the nature of the ministry itself. It will also give special attention to specific duties such as preaching, teaching, counseling, and leadership.

CHRISTIAN ETHICS NO AUDIT

DR ROBERT SEARS
EVERY THU, 7-10PM

PRE-REQUISITES:

- 1) FOR SOTE NON-GRADUATE STUDENTS: CHRISTIAN DOCTRINE
- 2) FOR SOC AND FINAL YEAR SOTE STUDENTS ONLY

This course will provide students with the foundation of Christian ethics and its underlying theological convictions, its understanding of the nature of the good and of the moral self, and the criteria for ethical judgments. These Christian ethical components are examined against the background of both historic and contemporary philosophical alternatives. Careful attention is then given to the application of Christian ethical principles and models to specific contemporary ethical issues, both personal and social.

Block Courses

BIBLICAL WORSHIP

REV DAPHNE JUNE LAU

SEP 9, 10, 16, 17 & 24

FRI: 8.30AM-5.30PM | SAT: 8.30AM-1PM

This course provides students with a deeper understanding of the theology of worship from a biblical perspective. As they explore the fundamentals of worship found in the Old and New Testaments, students will gain an appreciation of the elements required in worship and its various expressions in the local church today.

THE GRECO-ROMAN WORLD OF THE NEW TESTAMENT ERA

NEW

REV DR BABU IMMANUEL

OCT 14, 15, 21, 22 & 29

FRI: 8.30AM-5.30PM | SAT: 8.30AM-1PM

PRE-REQUISITE: NEW TESTAMENT SURVEY/FOUNDATIONS

The Greco-Roman World of the New Testament Era explores the historical, social, cultural, political, economic, and religious aspects of the Greco-Roman world crucial for the understanding of the New Testament and the early Christian communities. A broader understanding of the Greco-Roman world will help in hermeneutically sound interpretation of the New Testament and its intelligent application to the present-day contexts.

THEOLOGICAL RESEARCH AND WRITING

REV DR LAM EE LIN

This course introduces students to the nature and process of theological research and writing. Students will learn about “thinking theologically”, research methodology, academic writing, proper use and citation of sources, avoiding plagiarism, and academic style.

NEW TESTAMENT FOUNDATIONS

REV DR BABU IMMANUEL

This course is a study of the New Testament in the context of the history and culture of its time. The main themes and teachings of each book will be explored in relation to the ongoing revelation of God's plan.

SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY II

DR ROBERT SEARS

This course will introduce students to the person and work of Jesus Christ, the nature of the human person, sin, and the concept of salvation. Toward these goals, the course will examine important Christological controversies of the fourth and fifth centuries, as well as an understanding of the Protestant Reformers. Students will be equipped with an understanding of the objective work of Christ in redemption as it relates to the human condition and an understanding of the subjective work of salvation.

Online Courses

PENTECOSTAL STUDIES

REV DR DENNIS LUM

This course will acquaint students with the Pentecostal heritage and survey the historical development of the Pentecostal movement. Doctrinal issues pertaining to Pentecostalism will be explored.

WORLD RELIGIONS

REV LILY LIM

This course explores the historical, textual, and lived dimensions of world religions including Buddhism, Hinduism, Islam, Judaism and Chinese religions. Special emphasis includes the study of both the formal religious teachings and the experiential aspects for students to critically appreciate and appropriately engage these world religions in everyday life.
